DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 10-18 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 23 September 2004.
2. Applicant's election with traverse of Invention II in the reply filed on 23 September 2004 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the apparatus of claims 1-9 is not independent from the apparatus of claims 10-18 and 19-27. This is not found totally persuasive because the apparatus of claims 10-18 is independent and distinct from the apparatus of claims 19-27, in that it is directed to a conditioning apparatus, while claims 1-9 and 19-27 are directed to a polishing apparatus. However, the examiner agrees that the apparatus of claims 1-9 and the method of claims 19-27 should be rejoined. Please refer to the action below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
4. Claims 2, 3, 5, 8, 9, 20, 21, 23, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 9 appears to be limiting a method of using the apparatus of claim 1, but does not further limit the apparatus. The scope of claim 9 cannot be determined. Claims 2, 3, 5, 8, 20, 21, 23 and 26 all recite "said slurry emulsion". "Emulsion" is defined as 1. A suspension of small globules of one liquid in a second liquid with which the first will not mix: an emulsion of oil in vinegar.¹ This limitation lacks antecedent basis, as only a slurry has been previously claimed. Applicant has not claimed structure of method for providing the emulsion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1-4, 9 (as best understood), 19-23, and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chiou et al US006398627B1 in view of Kawashima US006293849B1. '627 discloses the claimed invention, including a manifold having identical nozzles, each with a check valve, but does not disclose bifurcated supply lines, each branch having an adjustable flow control valve, and a flow meter. '849, in a similar device, figure 1 and its description, teaches providing a bifurcated supply line 14, 16 to a nozzle to supply diluted slurry to a polishing pad, the bifurcated supply line having one branch from a slurry supply, and one from a dilution supply. The bifurcated lines each have a shutoff valve 26, a pressure regulator 28, and a flow valve 29. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to have provided '627 with the bifurcated supply line taught by '849, to allow controlled mixing of slurry and dilution, as taught by '849, to more accurately control the polishing properties of the device, see column 2, lines 37-54.

8. Applicant may overcome this rejection by amending the claims to include limitations that each individual nozzle is fed from a bifurcated supply line.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 5-8, and 23-26 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Other similar devices are cited of interest.
